Amanda M. Dobberpuhl

Funeral services for Mrs. Amanda M. Dobberpuhl were held at St. John's Lutheran church in Groton, February 26, 1962, at 2:00 p. m., Rev. Paul Krueger officiating and the Ackerson Funeral Home of Groton in charge.

Amanda was born October 19, 1884, in Oshkosh, Wis., moving with her parents, Herman and Minnie Gengerke to the Groton vicinity in 1888.

She was united in marriage, with William Dobberpuhl on March 4, 1905; to this union one son, Clarence was born.

She lived in the Groton vicinity until after her husband passed away, then moving to Aberdeen where she worked until a few months ago, when she retired to a rest home in Aberdeen. She has been a life-long member of the Lutheran church.

She is survived by one brother, Herman Gengerke of Coopertown, N. D., plus many other relatives.

Preceding her in death were her husband, son, parents, two sisters and five brothers.
